Anti-Abolitionism and the Irish Cause

For our June 8th meeting, we welcome back Dr. Ian Delahanty. He will be speaking on his new book, Embracing Emancipation: A

Transatlantic History of Irish Americans, Slavery, and the American Union, 1840-1865. Delahanty, Associate Professor of History at Springfield College, is especially interested in how, during the Civil War era, Irish minds were changed from unflinching opposition to emancipation to seeing it as an ally of the Irish cause.

NEW VENUE: Albertus Magnus College, in New Haven, 333 Huntington St. Gate (6). NEW TIME: 2pm. NEW DATE Sunday, June 8th; Not a Tuesday night.

For GPS: use the Huntington address as above. Driving: Prospect St. is the main gate for the college but the side gate on Huntington is your entry. A-framed signs to the "event" will indicate that it is a straight, short distance on campus to a building on your right, down a slight hill and parking under the carport. The building is named Hubert Campus Center. Use the main door and directly in front of you is the Fireplace Lounge. That's our meeting place. Comfortable furniture, refreshments, and all the facilities await you.

COMING EVENTS: Irish Book Club: Reading Short Stories by John Keane and Peig by Peig Sayers. Aug. 6, 4pm at Millbrook. Pool optional. RSVP.

IHRT Mailing List: We would like to update our list for those who wish to remain on it. Please fill out the information below and mail to our PO Box 185604, Hamden, CT 06518. We prefer an email address but will send it through print mail if not available. We will let you know of our next venue/dates for our talks and activities.
