The Centenary of the First Dail, January, 1919

For our April 16th meeting of the IHRT, we have the pleasure of hearing Peadar MacMaghnúis who will give us the details that established the First Dail , a parliament like body of government in Ireland , in January, 1919. We celebrate its 100th anniversary this year and it seems right to study its historical significance for the Irish 100 years later. Join us at 7:30pm at the Knights of St. Patrick hall, New Haven, for an informative talk about this historical event. Peadar MacMaghnúis, second from the right, is well known in the Irish American community. He is a member of the AOH and has been strongly interested in Irish history and culture. He is also Co-Chair of Eire Nua USA campaign. He gives us the benefit of his avocation for historical detail .
