Eugene O'Neill's NYC

For our April 18th meeting of the IHRT, we are pleased to welcome Sheila Garvey, Professor Emeritus of the Theater Department of SCSU. In her presentation, she will be taking us on a visual stroll through Manhattan neighborhoods that were important in the theatrical legacy and life of Connecticut summer resident Eugene O'Neill. O'Neill was the descendent of a famous Irish American actor and the only American to have ever won the Nobel Prize . The talk is free and open to the public. See you at 7:30pm.

Sheila Hickey Garvey has spent 35 years writing about the American Regional Theater movement and major Broadway revivals of O'Neill's plays. She has been a professional director of musical productions as well as earning awards for directing plays locally and regionally. She has been a writer and contributor to books on O'Neill and theater and was Past President of the Eugene O'Neill Society.
