November 2014

Cutting Edge Literary Research

For our November 18th meeting of the IHRT, we welcome Robert Dowling. He will present us with excerpts from his latest book just made available this October, Eugene O'Neill: A Life in Four Acts. This book captures the intimacies of O'Neill's life and his impact on American drama. We will be treated to new material that gives us O'Neill's political views, his Irish upbringing, and tormented losing of his faith. Dowling's work gives us the first public exposure of O'Neill's lost play, Exorcism. His books will be for sale at the meeting. Join us at 7:30pm, Knights of St. Patrick, New Haven.

Robert Dowling is professor of English at CCSU and has published extensively on O'Neill. He serves on the editorial board of the Eugene O'Neill Review and the board of the O'Neill Society. He lives in New London.
