The DeAnglicising of Ireland

For our November meeting of the IHRT, we are delighted to welcome Mary Burke of Milford. She will introduce us to Douglas Hyde, the first President of Ireland, and to the politics of the Irish (Gaelic), language. This was during Ireland's early 20th century Cultural Revival.

Mary Burke is an Associate Professor in the English Department of UCONN Humanities Institute Fellow and coordinator of the Irish Literature Concentration. She is a native of Ireland. Join us November 17th at 7:30pm to hear her informative talk!
